

Application form and lodgement guide

Guide to applying for the Queensland First Home Owners' Grant

Keep this guide for future reference. It contains important information about the grant and your obligations after you receive the grant. The general information in this guide does not cover every aspect of the First Home Owner Grant Act 2000 (the Act).

The Queensland First Home Owners' Grant is available for eligible transactions to buy or build a new home between 1 July 2016 and 30 June 2017, both dates inclusive.

Do not use this form for transactions dated before 1 July 2016.

For an explanation of the terms used in this guide, see page 4.

By completing and lodging this form, you are declaring that you are eligible for the grant and will comply with your obligations.

It is an offence to provide false or misleading information to the Commissioner to receive the grant. If you are unsure about any of your obligations or any of the information required in the application, visit our website (www.qld.gov.au/firsthomeowners) or contact the Office of State Revenue (OSR) on 1300 300 734.

If your application is approved and the grant is paid, you will be notified in writing of the conditions you are required to satisfy, including the residence requirement. If you are unable to satisfy any of these conditions, you must notify the Commissioner within 14 days of becoming aware that you are unable to comply with the requirement, and repay the grant.

If you do not meet these obligations, you may be penalised and required to repay the grant.

Requirements

Applicants must:

- ensure the application is completed in full (an incomplete application will not be accepted)
- lodge the completed application and all supporting documents within 12 months of completion of the eligible transaction
- be a natural person (i.e. not a company), at least 18 years of age at the commencement of the eligible transaction
- ensure at least one applicant is an Australian citizen or a permanent resident at the time of applying for the grant
- be buying or building a new home where the contract date is between 1 July 2016 and 30 June 2017 (both dates inclusive) or building a home as an owner-builder where the laying of the foundations commenced on or after 1 July 2016 but before 1 July 2017
- be buying or building a new home valued less than $750,000
- ensure each person holding a relevant interest in the property is an applicant
- ensure all applicants will reside in the new home as their principal place of residence for a continuous period of at least 6 months commencing within 12 months of completion of the eligible transaction.

Applicants and their spouses must not have:

- previously owned or held a relevant interest in residential property anywhere in Australia before 1 July 2000
- residential property in which they acquired a relevant interest anywhere in Australia on or after 1 July 2000
- previously received a first home owner grant in any state or territory of Australia. If a grant was received from the Queensland Office of State Revenue that you later paid back, together with any penalty, you may be entitled to reapply for the grant.

How to apply

Applications must be lodged within 12 months of completion of the eligible transaction.

You can lodge your completed application with the:

- approved bank or financial institution (approved agent) that is providing your finance. A list of approved agents can be found at www.qld.gov.au/firsthomeowners. If you require the grant for settlement or want to receive the grant as soon as possible, you need to lodge your application with an approved agent.
- Office of State Revenue (OSR)
GPO Box 953
Brisbane QLD 4001

Note: Applications cannot be lodged with OSR until completion of the eligible transaction.

Obligations

Applicants must meet the following conditions of the residence requirement to retain the grant.

- All applicants must live in the home as their principal place of residence for at least 6 continuous months commencing within 12 months of completion of the eligible transaction.
- All applicants may be required to verify they have met the residence requirement by providing documentation supporting their period of occupancy.
- Should you not meet the residence requirement, you must notify OSR in writing within 14 days after the relevant date and repay the grant.

Failure to advise the Commissioner in writing may result in applicants being required to repay the grant with penalties.

Penalties

OSR, as part of its role in administering the Act, conducts ongoing investigations to ensure that applicants comply with the conditions of the Act. All applications undergo a thorough review. Applicants are checked for former home ownership in Queensland and interstate. Other checks into spouse status, council records, title details and finance particulars are undertaken on a routine basis.

If an applicant receives the grant when they are not entitled, or do not comply with the residence requirement, penalties may be imposed. The penalty amount depends on the circumstances of each case, and is in addition to having to repay the grant. In some cases the penalty applied is equal to the amount of the grant received.

Providing false or misleading information to OSR is a criminal offence. If it is determined that an applicant has provided false or misleading information then prosecution action may be commenced.

When the grant will be paid

The date the grant is paid depends on whether you are buying or building a new home, and if you are applying through an approved agent or OSR (see table below).

Applying through and paid by	Type of transaction	Timeframe
Approved agent	Contract to purchase a new home	At date of settlement
	Contract to build a home	On date of first progress payment as long as the payment is more than the grant payable This does not include the deposit on the contract to build.
	Building a home as an owner-builder	On receipt of final inspection certificate
OSR	Contract to purchase a new home	Within 10 working days of receiving a fully completed application and all supporting documentation after completion of the eligible transaction
	Contract to build a home
	Building a home as an owner-builder

How to complete the application form

All applicants must complete the form and the supporting documentation checklist.

- Print or type responses in the boxed spaces, and tick appropriate boxes.
- Sign in blue or black ink.
- Cross out any corrections. (Do not use correction fluid or white-out.) All applicants must initial each correction.

This application form has seven sections and a supporting documentation checklist.

All supporting documentation must be provided to form a complete application (use the checklist provided). Do not send original documents.

- If lodging with an approved agent, each applicant and their spouse must provide a category 1 document (see the checklist).
- If lodging with OSR, all of the relevant supporting documentation must be submitted with your application.

Section 1 Eligibility criteria

Answer questions 1 to 8 by ticking the relevant Yes or No box. The answers are designed to establish that the applicants for the grant meet the eligibility criteria.

Answer questions 9 to 13 by ticking the relevant Yes or No box to establish that no disqualifying arrangements exist. These questions do not result in an automatic disqualification of the application; however, we will request further clarification from applicants if applicable.

All persons with a relevant interest in the home, and any spouse of these persons, must be considered when answering these questions.

In exceptional circumstances, the Commissioner may use discretion in relation to some eligibility criteria.

All decisions relating to the eligibility of an applicant are made by the Commissioner.

Section 2 Applicant details

Answer question 14 with the number of people (applicants) who have, or will have, a relevant interest in the home.

If there are more than two applicants, complete and attach another application form.

If an applicant has a spouse, there are two options:

- (a) If the spouse is an applicant, they must be recorded in this section.
- (b) If the spouse is not an applicant—that is, they will not have a relevant interest in the property—they must complete Section 3.

Nominate one postal address for correspondence to be sent on behalf of all applicants.

Section 3 Spouse details

This section must be completed by the applicant when their spouse has not been specified as an applicant in Section 2. That is, the spouse will not have a relevant interest in the home.

The spouse must then complete the declaration in Section 7.

Section 4 Property and transaction details

Provide the street address details of the new home. An incorrect address may delay the application processing time.

Answer question 19 by selecting the type of transaction for this grant application.

Section 5 Optional information

Questions 20 and 21 are optional, and have no bearing on your application. These responses to these questions are collected by OSR on behalf of the Australian Productivity Commission for statistical purposes.

Section 6 Declaration by applicant

- All applicants must sign the declaration to confirm they have read and understood all the details completed on the application form.
- If you are applying through an approved agent, the agent will record all your payment details and you do not need to record them on this application form.
- If applying through OSR, applicants must nominate an account to receive funds by electronic funds transfer (EFT). The account can belong to a person who is not an applicant. Payment of the grant will be made into the nominated bank account. Failure to provide correct details will cause delays in payment of the grant.

Section 7 Declaration by spouse

If an applicant's spouse is not an applicant, they must sign this declaration to confirm they have read and understood all details completed on the application form as they relate to them.

Supporting documentation checklist

Use this checklist to ensure that you provide all the required documents with your application. Check each relevant box and identify the type of document when indicated.

Failure to produce the relevant documentation may result in delays in processing.
